1. The number of Common Curriculum credits can differ depending upon whether or not the student studies abroad.

Students are required to take a minimum of 4 UIC Seminars, but a student is allowed to substitute UIC Seminars with electives at their exchange program while studying abroad.

If a student is away for one semester on exchange (including Exchange Program, Visiting Program, Study Abroad Program), the number of UIC Seminars to be taken is reduced to 3. If a student takes two semesters of exchange, then the number goes down to a minimum of 2.

Transfer students may take 2 UIC Seminars only.

2. Students admitted before 2019 who have taken both a Science Literacy course and "Research Design and Quantitative Methods" can have one of them counted as a UIC Seminar for the purpose of calculating graduation requirements.

3. Up to 9 credits (of which 6 must be in the same language) of foreign language courses other than English can count towards fulfillment of CLC major credits.

These courses must be major courses from the French, German, Russian, or Chinese department in the College of Liberal Arts. Major courses on Biblical Hebrew and Greek from the College of Theology are also eligible to be counted as CLC major credit. All general elective language courses (including those in UIC CC) do not count as CLC major credit.

Courses taken to fulfill UIC overall language requirements cannot be double counted towards fulfillment of CLC credit requirements.

4. Up to 12 credits taken in related fields (Chinese, English, German, French, and Russian Literature and Language from the College of Liberal Arts, and Cultural Anthropology from the College of Social Sciences) may count towards fulfillment of CLC major credits. Only literature or culture related courses will be approved as major credits.

However, up to 6 credits out of the total 12 credits may be obtained through linguistics or pedagogical methodology courses, with prior approval from an appointment with the Chair of CLC.

5. Major credits will be reduced to 36 if a student completes a double major.

6. For students admitted in 2009-2015, 3 of 6 credits for Language can be substituted with 3 credits of Language and Arts course of UIC.

Students admitted in 2016 should take 1 course from Language & Arts courses in UIC or 1 Course from Non-UIC Language Courses.

Students admitted in 2017-2018 should take 1 course from Language & Arts courses in UIC.

Students admitted in 2012-2015, and 2019-2021 may get an exemption for language course(s) according to UIC language requirement exemption regulations. Those students who get exempted, or only have to fulfill partial requirements do not earn extra credits, should take other courses in place of language courses.

7. CC L-H-P Series: Students should take two courses from two of the following categories: World History, World Literature or World Philosophy.

8. Notice for transfer students

1) Transfer students entered as juniors are required to take 2 semesters of Chapel, whereas transfer students entered as sophomores are required to take 3 semesters of Chapel.

2) Transfer students class of 2010 (2010 학년) and thereafter are waived from language requirements.

3) Transfer students may take additional 3 credits of World History and additional 3 credits of World Literature instead of Western Civilization and Eastern Civilization.

4) Transfer students class of 2011 (2011 학년) and thereafter are waived from Humanities Reading Seminar I,II, Global Leadership Forum, Holistic Education (or Social Engagement) and RC101.

9. Students admitted in 2020-2021 get an exemption for Social Engagement courses.
