1. The number of Common Curriculum credits can differ depending upon whether or not the student studies abroad.

Students are required to take a minimum of 4 UIC Seminars, but a student is allowed to substitute UIC Seminars with electives at their exchange program while studying abroad.

If a student is away for one semester on exchange (including Exchange Program, Visiting Program, and Study Abroad Program), the number of UIC Seminars to be taken is reduced to 3. If a student takes two semesters of exchange, then the number goes down to a minimum of 2.

Transfer students may take 2 UIC Seminars only.

2. Students admitted before 2019 who have taken both a Science Literacy course and "Research Design and Quantitative Methods" can have one of them counted as a UIC Seminar for the purpose of calculating graduation requirements.

3. "World Politics and International Relations" has been renamed "Theories of International Relations," and "Introduction to International Studies" is a prerequisite for this course.

4. "Introduction to Economics" is a prerequisite for "International Economics." Students may take "Fundamentals of Economic Decision Making" instead of "Introduction to Economics."

"Fundamentals of Economic Decision Making" is counted toward fulfilling the credit requirement for the major, whereas "Introduction to Economics" is counted as a UIC Elective.

5. Major credits will be reduced to 36 if a student completes a double major.

6. For students admitted in 2009-2015, 3 of 6 credits for Language can be substituted with 3 credits of Language and Arts course of UIC.

Students admitted in 2016 should take 1 course from Language & Arts courses in UIC or 1 Course from Non-UIC Language Courses.

Students admitted in 2017-2018 should take 1 course from Language & Arts courses in UIC.

Students admitted in 2012-2015, and 2019-2021 may get an exemption for language course(s) according to UIC language requirement exemption regulations. Those students who get exempted, or only have to fulfill partial requirements do not earn extra credits, should take other courses in place of language courses.

7. CC L-H-P Series: Students should take two courses from two of the following categories: World History, World Literature or World Philosophy.

8. Notice for transfer students

1) Transfer students entered as juniors are required to take 2 semesters of Chapel, whereas transfer students entered as sophomores are required to take 3 semesters of Chapel.

2) Transfer students class of 2010 (2010 학번) and thereafter are waived from language requirements.

3) Transfer students may take additional 3 credits of World History and additional 3 credits of World Literature instead of Western Civilization and Eastern Civilization.

4) Transfer students class of 2011 (2011 학번) and thereafter are waived from Humanities Reading Seminar I, II, Global Leadership Forum, Holistic Education (or Social Engagement) and RC101.

5) Transfer students class of 2012 (2012 학번) through 2016 are waived from Introduction to International Studies.

9. Students admitted in 2020-2021 get an exemption for Social Engagement courses.
